Braunschweig, Celle, Einbeck, Göttingen, Goslar, Hameln, Hannover, Hildesheim and Wolfenbüttel offer together with the Autostadt in Wolfsburg, attractive programmes for a trip to Lower Saxony.

Urban flair, charming old towns, nature and idylls within easy reach: Europe's largest half-timbered ensemble in Celle, UNESCO Heritage Sites such as the Old Town in Goslar and the Cathedral and St. Michael's Church in Hildesheim or the magnificent town houses and medieval squares in Braunschweig can be easily discovered. Visitors to Herrenhausen Gardens in Hanover experience garden art in perfection, and in Hameln much, but not everything, revolves around the legendary Pied Piper. In the city of Jägermeister Wolfenbüttel, more than 600 half-timbered houses are enchanting. History but also student flair characterise the cityscape of the traditional university town of Göttingen. A journey into the world of mobility in the Autostadt in Wolfsburg promises plenty of variety.

NEW: The city of EINBECK. Visitors will look forward to many splendid half-timbered houses, the delicious Einbecker beer and Europe's largest vintage cars collection in the PS .SPEICHER.

The cities are also ideal starting points for cycling or hiking tours to the Harz Mountains, the Lüneburg Heath or the Weserberland hills. In Advent visitors will experience traditional Christmas spirit as its best in one of Germany's most beautiful Christmas market regions.

Hannover forms the central point of arrival, located at the main train connections and motorways. The Hannover Airport is your gateway to the 9 cities.
